

Rainbow People Training in Minneapolis

What a tremendous time we had in Minneapolis recently participating in the training of both leaders and laity in how to reach the homosexual community during the upcoming Gay Pride Parade there in June. Steven Uggen of Trinity Works invited Dr. Robert as I have read the pages. What a gift to the body of Christ. It is truly an awesome book!

“Such Were Some of You Awards & Nominations

As you may know, our documentary has already won the silver for “Best Documentary” at the Kingdomwood

Christian Film Festival and “Honorable Mention” at the Christian Worldview Film Festival. But what you may not know is that we have been nominated for “Best Documentary” by the International Christian Film Festival (ICFF) and for Gagnon (pictured above), Dr. Michael Brown, Joe Dallas, Adam Hood and myself to teach the pastors, intercessors and others how to understand what homosexuals are going through and how best to help them. I must say, the messages from these men were some of the best that I’ve ever heard. And I was mightily impressed with the track record of Trinity Works and their plans for what they are calling the “Love Minneapolis” outreach. Pray for them.

Partner of Hope Award

The Nashville affiliate of the Christian Television Network (WHTN-TV 39) recently invited all of the programmers on their station to receive an award as a partner of hope in sharing the love of Jesus to the world. Through the Thaicom 5 satellite alone, our “Pure Passion” TV program is available to 75% of the world’s population. Thank you CTN, WHTN and Jesus for including us in your awesome mission outreach! The honor is all ours.

“Best Documentary” and for “Best Companion Material” by the Aletheia (Truth) Awards (AFA). If you’re in the
